

UNITINGSA IMPACT REPORT

UnitingSA is an organisation grounded in a simple, powerful idea: Together, we can.

For more than 105 years, we've been at the heart of our community, responding to the needs of families and individuals and working together to improve lives.

10,195

people provided with community services

84

people provided supported employment at Wesley Social Enterprises

131

people joined in groups and developed new skills at Taperoo Community Centre

222

young people supported to reconnect with education, training and their community through our Youth Services

548

people had their health and wellbeing supported through our Mental Health Services

950

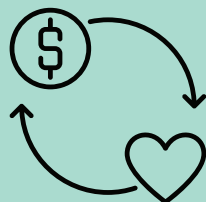

people sought help for money matters with our Financial Counselling service

534

people received support under the National Disability Insurance Scheme (NDIS)

1,350

people assisted through our Employment & Training Support programs

1,755

No Interest Loans issued, to the value of $2.7m, to help people buy essential items

1,455

people accessed support through our Homelessness Services

335

people supported through the Escaping Violence Payment program

2,134

people provided Emergency Assistance including food, blankets, pharmacy, phone and transport vouchers

2,146

people supported by Child, Youth & Family Services

840

people provided with community housing

38

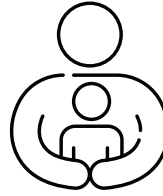

new tenancies were established during the year

109

new community housing properties under construction

199

children were among our community housing tenants

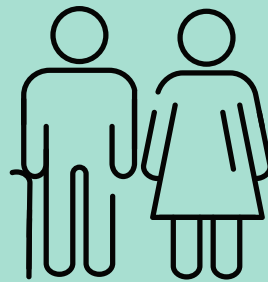

709

properties managed or under development by UnitingSA

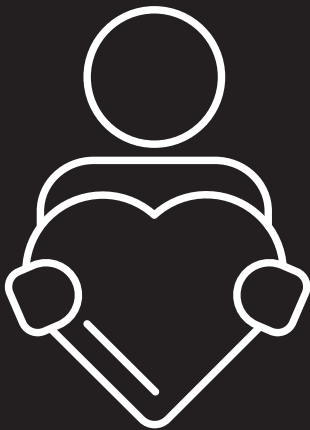

452

community housing properties provided social and affordable accommodation

1,502

people supported across aged care

12,537

people helped by UnitingSA across South Australia

142

people supported under our Transitional Care Program

162

people provided a home in our Retirement Living communities

644

people received Home Care and Support to aid their independence

696

people provided Residential Aged Care

821

staff providing support in aged care

144

Independent Living Units provided quality retirement living for older people

Learn more about our impact in our Annual Report

UNITINGSA

Data from the 2023-24 financial year

Follow us on social media @unitingsa
unitingsa.com.au